It is for levels 3, Teen Ballet, 4, 5. There is no audition required for Pre Pro but dancers must take a minimum of two ballet classes per week to be a part of Pre Pro. Because of the amount of improvement Pre Pros make during the year, the T/Th Ballet 3 class is reserved for those in Pre Pro. This class teaches proper etiquette and professionalism and provides performance opportunities besides the annual recital. Pre Pro dancers may audition for LBT productions when children's roles are needed. A special Pre Pro leotard, skirt and a warmup is required as well as light pink canvas ballet slippers. ADVANCED PROGRAM SCHEDULE

ADVANCED STUDENTS MAY ALSO TAKE ADDITIONAL CLASSES FROM OUR REGULAR SCHEDULE ON PAGE 1.

This program is by audition or invitation. It was developed to meet the needs of the serious student who may possibly choose a career in the field of dance or pursue a college dance degree. Students who desire only 2 or 3 classes a week should take classes in our excellent Open Program. Students in any Advanced Class must abide by an additional set of policies. A parent and dancer are to schedule a meeting with the director if this will be your first year in an Advanced class (with the exception of Advanced Tap) to review these policies. Advanced adults may enroll in these classes with permission of an instructor.

In case of inclement weather, we follow the lead of L.I.S.D. and send registered students an email, as well as post on our Ballet Conservatory FACEBOOK PAGE and INSTAGRAM PAGE. FOLLOW US for the latest studio news and photos. As with any other closure or absence, students are allowed to makeup classes within 2 months of the absence, but must be completed during the semester of the absence. Makeups may not carry over to a new semester.

ADVANCED PROGRAM & COMPANY REQUIREMENTS:

1. Required days for Advanced Ballet are M/Tu/Th/Sat. Wed and Fri classes are optional but highly recommended.
2. Advanced Modern and Advanced Jazz students are required to take at least one ballet class.
3. Attendance must be limited to 3 absences a semester in order to remain in an Advanced class and/or recital dance or one of our dance companies.
4. All Adv Ballet and Jazz students, LBT, LBT2 are required to take a minimum of 3 weeks of our 5-week BC Summer Workshop, or an approved out of town Intensive. IDC – See summer requirements in your contract.

Note: Keep in mind that in order to be successful in an Advanced Ballet Program, 5 to 6 days a week of training is the universal standard. It is important to study other styles of dance in order to achieve the versatility necessary for a career in dance these days. Training in classical ballet is vital to your success, even for those who are more interested in jazz, contemporary or other genres. Dancers are encouraged to stretch, condition and cross-train to avoid injury.

LBT and LBT 2 minimum requirements:

Four ballet classes each week; 1 contemporary/modern class; and 1 Jazz class. Pre Pro does fulfill the ballet requirement, but pointe/pre-pointe classes do not. Tap and other dance forms are not required but highly recommended for musicality, coordination and versatility.

IDC minimum requirements:

Juniors – 2 Ballet, 1 Jazz and 1 Tap
Intermediates- 2 Ballet, 1 Jazz, 1 Tap. Contemporary/Modern not required but highly recommended.
Seniors – 3 Ballet, 1 Jazz, 1 Tap, Contemporary/Modern
Pre Pro does fulfill the ballet requirement, but pointe/pre-pointe classes do not. Company dancers are encouraged to take other dance forms such as hip hop and musical theater as IDC performs these styles of dance.

LBT holds open auditions for all area ballet students ages 5 & up for the annual production of "The Nutcracker." One Audition ONLY is held Saturday, September 7th. If cast, rehearsals for children's roles are held Saturday afternoons beginning late September. Pointe roles and lead roles also rehearse on Tuesday and Thursday during LBT times. There are mandatory theater rehearsals held during Thanksgiving Week, Nov. 24-27. Nutcracker Dress Rehearsal and Performances are Nov. 29-Dec 1.

Communication:

We communicate through our "Five Pointes" email every Monday with studio news and important information. Please make sure we have your correct email in Jackrabbit and that you receive an email each Monday. Please let us know if you wish to add additional emails to the "Five Pointes." It is always nice if the dancer receives the email as well so they are aware of Theme Weeks, auditions, etc.
